

Welcome to Pennsylvania Western University!

Please complete the attached payroll forms so that we may activate you on our payroll system.

Our payroll is processed biweekly and after-the-fact. Thus, your check is always for the prior two-week pay period. Paychecks cannot be advanced or released prior to payday, without exception; therefore, you are encouraged to use direct deposit. Should a payday occur on an observed holiday, the processing schedule will be adjusted, and payday will precede the holiday.

If you have been appointed with benefits, please check your university email to see your benefits and retirement plan options.

For direct deposit or payroll deductions into your financial institution, you must notify HRConnect prior to closing or changing your account(s). Failure to do so will result in a delay of payment to you.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact HRConnect at 717-720-4040 or passhe.service-now.com. Please return your completed payroll forms to the local Human Resources office on or before the first day of work.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
	_____ Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)		_____ Date

Employers Only	Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2024 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2023 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2024. You had no federal income tax liability in 2023 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2023 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2024 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2025.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
3. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2024 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2024 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $29,200 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse; $21,900 if you're head of household; $14,600 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

DIRECT DEPOSIT AUTHORIZATION FORM

How Direct Deposit works –

The Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education notifies your financial institution electronically of the funds to be deposited on your behalf. Your financial institution records this transaction into an account of your choice, creating immediate access on the day of deposit. You receive an earnings statement documenting this payment. If you desire to make a direct deposit into more than one institution, you must complete a form for each institution. Only one deposit can be made to one account at each institution.

- ✓ It's convenient – saves you a trip to the bank.
- ✓ It's faster – most banks post the funds to your account at the beginning of the day's business on payday allowing immediate access.
- ✓ It's safer – Direct Deposit eliminates the worry of a lost or stolen paycheck.
- ✓ It's confidential – funds are automatically processed and you can instruct your bank to apply them to your savings or checking account.

Name _____ Personnel Number _____
(may be found on pay statement)

I hereby authorize the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education to (circle one) Start / Change / Stop total biweekly payroll deduction to the Financial Institution shown below. You may designate any bank, savings and loan association, or credit union in the U.S. that (1) is a member of the Federal Reserve System and (2) accepts electronic funds transfer. Payroll will notify you if the institution you choose does not qualify.

Policy IT001: Acceptable Use Policy

Recommended for Approval by: Fawn Petrosky, Interim Vice President for Administration and Finance

Approved by: Dr. Dale-Elizabeth Pehrsson, President, Pennsylvania Western University;
Pennsylvania Western University Executive Cabinet

Effective Date: 07/01/2022

A. Intent

This policy applies to all users including faculty, staff, students, contractors and guest users of the Pennsylvania Western University (PennWest) computer network resources, equipment, or connecting resources. Use of the University's Information Technology Resources signifies agreement to comply with this policy.

While the University recognizes the role of privacy in an institution of higher learning and will attempt to honor that ideal, there should be no expectation of privacy of information stored on or sent through University-owned information technology, unless the law establishes a privacy right that is enforceable against the University. There may be instances where the University may be required to provide information stored in its Information Technology Resources to someone other than the user as a result of court order, investigatory process, or in response to a request authorized under Pennsylvania's Right-to-Know statute (65 P.S. §67.101 et seq.). Information stored by the University may also be viewed by technical staff working to resolve technical issues.

The purpose of this policy is to address the use of University issued/owned Information Technology Resources.

PennWest provides numerous Information Technology Resources for use by the University's students, faculty, and staff. The term Information Technology Resources includes, but is not limited to, all University computing equipment, storage devices, and any electronic device issued by the University and intended for business purposes, as well as software, systems, and networks. The use of Information Technology Resources includes the electronic communications over and through such devices. These resources are provided to support the University's mission and institutional goals. The use of these systems is a privilege and all users are expected to act responsibly and to follow the University's policies and any applicable local, state and federal laws (e.g., copyright, criminal use of a communication device, harassment, etc.) related to the use of these resources.

B. Definition(s)

User – a.k.a “end user”. Any individual who uses a computer or other information technology resource that is controlled, managed or owned by Penn West.

C. Policy

- Responsibilities of User of University Information Technology Resources:
 - Respect the intellectual property rights of authors, contributors, and publishers in all media;
 - Protect user identification, password, information and system from unauthorized use;
 - Report lost or stolen devices, including devices that contain private or University information to IT immediately upon discovery of the loss;
 - Adhere to the terms of software licenses and other contracts. Persons loading software on any University computer must adhere to University contracting requirements and all licensing requirements for the software. Except where allowed by the University site licenses, copying software licensed for University use for personal use is a violation of this policy;
 - Adherence to all other applicable University policies and/or terms of any collective bargaining agreement;
 - To use the University Information Technology Resources in a manner that complies with State and Federal law. Adherence to all other applicable University policies and/or terms of any collective bargaining agreement;
 - Participate in required Security Awareness Training to learn how to better protect University Accounts, Systems, and Data.

- Prohibited Uses of University Information Technology Resources:
 - Providing false or misleading information to obtain a University computing account, or hiding or disguising one’s identity to avoid responsibility for behavior in the use of information technologies;
 - Unauthorized use of another user’s account, to include account sharing;
 - Attempting to gain or gaining unauthorized access to University Information Technology Resources, or to the files of another;
 - Performing any act(s) that impede the normal operation of or interfere with the proper functioning of University Information Technology Resources;
 - Interfering with the security mechanisms or integrity of the University’s Information Technology Resources;
 - Use of the University Information Technology Resources to transmit material, chain letters, spam, or communications prohibited by state or federal law;
 - Transmitting or displaying media content in a manner that violates the University’s sexual harassment policy;
 - Copyright infringement, including illegal file sharing of video, audio, software or data;

- Excessive use that overburdens the Information Technology Resources to the exclusion of other users;
 - Personal use by employees that interferes with an employee's ability or availability to perform their job responsibilities;
 - Use of the University Information Technology Resources for personal profit, commercial reasons, non-University fundraising, political campaigns or any illegal purpose;
 - The prohibition against using University Information Technology Resources for personal profit does not apply to:
 - Scholarly activities, including the writing of textbooks or preparation of other teaching material by faculty members; or
 - Other activities that relate to the faculty member's professional development.
 - Other activities as approved by the University President
 - Non-authorized solicitations on behalf of individuals, groups, or organizations are prohibited;
 - Intentionally or knowingly installing, executing, or providing to another, a program or file, on any of the University's Information Technology Resources that could result in the damage to any file, system, or network. This includes, but is not limited to computer viruses, malware, killware, ransomware, Cryptomining, Trojan horses, worms, spyware or other malicious program(s) or file(s).
- Copying and copyright infringement: the University respects and upholds the rights of holders of copyrights, their agents and representatives. It is the responsibility of employees and students to be aware of the rights of copyright owners. Legal use of copyrighted material can include, but is not limited to, ownership, license or permissions, and fair use under the US Copyright Act. Illegal use includes:
 - Reproducing or allowing others to reproduce copyrighted software material in any form without proper authorization, or not in keeping with the University's copyright regulations or federal and state laws.
 - The use of software applications that allow for the direct sharing of copyrighted works without the permissions of the copyright holder.
 - Email Communication: The PennWest email system is considered an official means of communication and all students and employees are responsible for information sent to them via their PennWest account. All students and employees are given a PennWest email account. With respect to those email accounts:
 - It is the responsibility of the email account owner to delete unwanted messages and attachments, and to otherwise maintain their account.
 - Students, Faculty, and Staff must use their University e-mail account for all University business. In order to protect University information and clearly distinguish official University business as opposed to personal communications, users are not permitted to use non-university email accounts (e.g. personal gmail, yahoo, Comcast, etc.) to conduct University business. Students, Faculty, and Staff e-mail accounts may not be configured to redirect e-mail to personal accounts (gmail, yahoo, other e-mail providers) nor may students, faculty, and staff personal accounts be configured to send e-mail on behalf of their PennWest e-mail account.

- It is expected that students and employees will check their PennWest email accounts on a frequent and consistent basis.

- Enforcement:

A University employee or student who violates this policy risks a range of sanctions imposed by relevant University disciplinary processes, ranging from denial of access to any or all Information Technology Resources up to and including termination (for an employee) or dismissal (for a student). They also risk referral for prosecution under applicable local, state or federal laws.

Enforcement of this policy may be subject to the terms and conditions of the various collective bargaining agreements that apply to faculty and staff.

By signing below, the user of PennWest IT resources acknowledges receipt of a copy of this document and agrees to comply with the policies herein.

MEMO

TO: All Faculty, Staff, Student Workers, Volunteers, Program Administrators and Contractors

SUBJECT: Reporting of Arrests or Convictions and Reporting Suspected Child Abuse

As required by the Child Protective Services Law, effective December 31, 2014, all employees, volunteers, and program administrators must self-report within 72 hours if they are arrested or convicted of certain reportable offenses outlined in the law. Attached you will find the form (Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education 72-Hour Self-Reporting of Reportable Offenses) to be used to report those offenses. Also included is a confirmation sheet to confirm you have received and read this memo and the form.

If the university or program administrator has a reasonable belief that an employee or volunteer has been arrested or convicted of a reportable offense or was named as perpetrator in a founded or indicated report, or if an employee or volunteer has provided notice of activity that would be sufficient to deny employment or program participation, the university or program administrator must immediately require the employee or volunteer to immediately submit current information as required to secure the three background clearance checks. Any employee or volunteer who fails to comply with this paragraph may be subject to discipline up to and including termination or removal.

Report Suspected Child Abuse – In a situation of suspected child abuse, all State System administrators, faculty, coaches, staff, student workers, independent contractors, and volunteers are mandated reporters under State System Policy. You, as a mandated reporter must immediately contact the Department of Human Services (DHS) by calling 1-800-932-0313 to report suspected child abuse. Immediately following the report to DHS, the mandated reporter must notify the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and the Chief of the University Campus Police Department.

Please see State System Policy 2014-01-A: Protection of Minors for detailed information on reporting obligations. Please feel free to call the Human Resources Office with any questions.

Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education 72-Hour Self-Reporting of Reportable Offenses (Under the Child Protective Services Law)

Please read this entire form carefully before completing it. This form is to be used by current employees, volunteers, and applicants for employment to provide written notice within 72 hours after an arrest or conviction for a Reportable Offense or notice of being listed in the statewide database as a perpetrator of a founded or indicated report of child abuse.

Section 1. Personal Information

Full Legal Name: _____ Date of Birth: ____/____/____

Any former names or aliases by which you have been identified: _____

Section 2. Instructions

Individuals completing this form are required to submit the form to the administrator or other person responsible for employment decisions at the university. If you have questions regarding to whom the form should be sent, please contact your supervisor or the office of human resources at the university.

If you have any question about whether to report an offense, you should report it. An employee or volunteer who willfully fails to disclose information required for self-reporting could be charged with a misdemeanor of the third degree and may be subject to discipline up to and including termination or denial of employment or volunteer position.
